Looking for something a little stronger? A little better for the planet? A little better to make that all-important first impression?

Look no further! Wilson Jones is going PVC Free! Our core lines of view binders are turning over a new leaf and are now manufactured from polypropylene rather than vinyl. They may look the same, but these new binders will act very differently:

- More durable with greater hinge strength
- Less susceptible to cracking and splitting in cold weather
- No toner transfer for a cleaner presentation, meaning print won't stick
- Polypropylene is 100% recyclable
